WH HEREBY by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the thirtieth year of the reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the Third, intituled, “An Act for enabling the Lord High Chancellor and the Court of Exchequer respectively to make 5 Orders on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland for payment out of the General Fund of Monies belonging to the Suitors of the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer, the Sum therein mentioned towards building the principal Courts of Justice at Dublin and Law Offices,” and for amending an Act, intituled, “An
10 Act for better securing the Monies and Effects of the Suitors of the Court of Chancery and Court of Exchequer, by depositing the same in the National Bank, and to prevent the forging and counterfeiting any Draft, Order or other Voucher for the payment or delivery of such Money or Effects, and for other purposes,” it is, amongst 15 other things, enacted; that out of the General Fund of the Monies of the Suitors of his Majesty’s High Court of Chancery and Court of Exchequer, which then were or should be deposited in the Bank of Ireland, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should, within the space of Three Years from the Twenty-fifth day
20 of March One thousand seven hundred and Ninety, pay to the Lord High Chancellor and Chief Judges, towards building such Courts and Offices as therein mentioned, the sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, in manner therein provided :

Preamble :
30 G. 3. c. 41.

34 G. 3. c. 6.

And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the thirty-fourth year of the same reign, intituled, " An Act for enabling the Lord High Chancellor of Ireland and the Court of Exchequer respectively to make Orders on the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland for payment out of the General Fund of Monies belonging to the Suitors of the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer of the further Sum therein mentioned, towards building the principal Courts of Justice at Dublin and Law Offices, and for declaring that all Government Securities purchased by the Governor and Directors of the said Bank, and Profits arising therefrom, should be placed to the account of the Governor and Company of the said Bank," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that a further sum of Thirteen thousand five hundred Pounds should be paid out of the said Fund to the Lord High Chancellor and Chief Judges, towards building the said Courts and Offices :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the second year of the reign of His present MAJESTY, intituled, " An Act for the erection of a Nisi Prius Court House in Dublin," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that out of the said General Fund of the Monies of the Suitors of the said High Court of Chancery and Court of Exchequer, which then were or should be deposited in the Bank of Ireland, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland should from and after the Twenty-fifth day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, from time to time, as might be required, pay to the Commissioners for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland, for building the said Court House (and also for improving the accommodations in the present principal Courts of Justice in Dublin), any further sum or sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the sum of Four thousand Pounds, upon any Order or Orders which the Lord High Chancellor, or the Lord High Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Ireland for the time being, and the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer for the time being, should respectively make for that purpose in each year respectively :

And whereas it appears by Reports of the Commissioners appointed to execute the measures recommended in an Address of The House of Commons of the Twenty-fifth day of May One thousand eight hundred and Ten, respecting the Public Records of Ireland, that it is necessary to insulate the Courts of Justice in Dublin and the Public Record Offices adjoining thereto, for the purpose of protecting the various Records and Public Documents there deposited from the hazards of Fire and Embezzlement, to which they are continually exposed from the surrounding buildings :

And

And whereas it is estimated that a further sum of will be required for the purpose of purchasing the Ground requisite for the said purpose, and of erecting additional Offices connected with the said Courts and otherwise increasing the accommodations of such Offices;

BE it therefore Enacted, by The KING's most Excellent MAJESTY, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, THAT out of the said General Fund of the Monies of the Suitors of the said High Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer, which now are or shall be deposited in the Bank of Ireland, the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland shall from and after the

And be it further Enacted, That if it shall happen that the General Fund belonging to the Suitors of the said Courts shall at any time be reduced to a sum not greater than the amount of the sums in the said hereinbefore recited Acts mentioned and required to be paid by the Governor and Company of the said Bank, and the sum of which by this Act may be paid out of such General Fund, after the same shall be paid, then and in such case the Governor and Company of the said Bank shall from time to time be reimbursed, from and out of His Majesty's Treasury, so much of the several sums in the said Act mentioned, and of the said sum of or so much thereof as shall have been paid by virtue of this Act, as shall appear to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, to be necessary to provide a Fund sufficient to answer the demands of the Suitors of the said Courts upon the said Bank.
