To amend an Act of the Seventh Year of King GEORGE the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland.

- WH^{EREAS} by an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of his Majesty King GEORGE the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Prisons in Ireland," after providing, amongst other things, that it shall be
- 5 lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, from time to time, by warrant, to be published in the Dublin Gazette, to order that any Bridewells shall be discontinued, and shall no longer be used as a Bridewell or Prison, it is enacted as follows; (that is to say) "that it shall and may be law-
- 10 ful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being to direct that such Bridewells as shall be continued shall be divided into two classes; and that one class of the said Bridewells to be selected and appointed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall be
- 15 denominated District Bridewells, to each of which Bridewells a certain district within the county shall be allotted, and that all prisoners committed within such district either for trial at, or under sentence passed by, the Court of Quarter Sessions, shall be kept and remain in such District Bridewell, and shall not be transmitted to the
- 20 County Gaol, unless some order to that effect shall be made by competent authority, and it shall and may be lawful, in the event of a crowded state of the County Gaol, on the report of the local inspector thereof,
