proceedings therein, or the said Commissioners suing or being sued in the name of their Secretary, or any abatement or discontinuance of any such action or suit, or to the court in which, or to the terms or conditions on which, any such action or suit shall be brought against the said Commissioners, collectively or individually, or their Secretary, shall be held to apply to and extend to any action or suit to be commenced against the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, or their Secretary, or any person or persons for anything done by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, or to any proceedings in any such action or suit, or to the limitation of time for the commencing thereof, or to any costs thereof, or to any notice of any such action or suit, or to any evidence to be given therein, or to any action or suit to be commenced by the said Commissioners of Public Works in the execution of this Act, or on account of or in pursuance of this Act, or to any proceedings in any such action or suit, or to the said Commissioners suing or being sued in the name of their Secretary for the time being, or to any abatement or discontinuance of any such action or suit, or to the court in which or to the terms or conditions on which any such action or suit shall be brought against the said Commissioners of Public Works, collectively or individually, or against their Secretary.

Restraint on alienation of Property.

And be it Enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any College within the provisions of this Act to alien, mortgage, charge or demise any lands, tenements or hereditaments to which it may become entitled, unless with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, except by way of lease for any term not exceeding Thirty-one Years from the time when such lease shall be made, in and by which there shall be received and made payable, during the whole of the term thereby granted, the best yearly rent that can reasonably be gotten for the same, without any fine or foregift.

10.
Her Majesty to be Visitor of New Colleges.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That no College shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, or deemed to be within the provisions thereof, unless it be declared and provided, in and by the letters patent constituting such College, that the Visitor or Visitors of the said College shall be such person or persons as it shall please Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, from time to time to appoint, by any warrant or warrants under the sign manual, to execute the office of Visitor; and that all the statutes, rules and ordinances concerning the government and discipline of such Colleges shall be made or approved by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; and that the President, Vice-President and Professors shall hold their several offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; and that the sole power of appointing the President and Vice-President shall be vested in Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; and that the power of appointing the Professors shall be vested in Her Majesty,

Majesty, Her heirs and successors, until the end of the year One thousand eight hundred and Forty-eight, and afterwards as shall be otherwise provided by Parliament, or, in default of any provision to the contrary, in Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors.

- 5 And be it Enacted, That all the statutes, rules and ordinances which shall be made or approved from time to time by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, concerning the government and discipline of the said Colleges respectively, which shall be in force at the beginning of every Session of Parliament, and which shall not have been 10 before that time laid before Parliament, shall from time to time, within Six Weeks after the beginning of every such Session, be laid before both Houses of Parliament by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

11.
Statutes to be laid before Parliament.

- And be it Enacted, That the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's 15 Treasury shall be empowered, by warrant under the hands of any Three or more of them, to charge the said Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom (after providing for all preceding charges, but having preference for all future charges), and to direct to be issued or paid thereout by Four equal quarterly payments, on the Fifth
 20 day of January, the Fifth day of April, the Fifth day of July, and the Tenth day of October in every year, such sums of money as shall be needed for defraying the several stipends which shall be by Her Majesty appointed to be paid to the President and Vice President, and to such Professors in the several faculties of Arts, Law and Physic,
 25 as shall be from time to time established by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, and to the Bursar, Registrar, Librarian and other office-bearers and servants in each of the said Colleges, and for defraying the expense of such prizes and exhibitions as shall be by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, awarded for the encouragement
 30 and reward of Students in each of the said Colleges, not exceeding in any one year the sum of Seven thousand Pounds for every such College, or the sum of Twenty-one thousand Pounds in the whole; the first instalment for each College to become due and payable on such of the said quarterly days of payment as shall first happen next after the nances so to be made or approved by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, as aforesaid.

14.
Lecture-rooms to be assigned for religious Instruction.

AND for the better enabling every Student in the said Colleges to receive religious instruction according to the creed which he professes to hold; BE it Enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President and Professors, or other governing body of each of the said Colleges, which shall be constituted in and by the said Letters Patent, to assign lecture-rooms within the precincts of such College, wholly or in part, for the use of such religious Teachers as shall be recognized by such governing body, subject in each case to the approval of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors; and also, subject to the like approval, to make rules concerning the days and times when such religious instruction shall be afforded to those Students desirous of receiving the same, and for securing that the same shall not interfere with the general discipline of the College: Provided always, That no Student shall be compelled by any rule of the College to attend any theological lecture or religious instruction other than is approved by his Parents or Guardians, and that no religious test shall be administered to any person in order to entitle him to be admitted a Student of any such College, or to hold any office therein, or to partake of any advantage or privilege thereof; but this proviso shall not be deemed to prevent the making of regulations for securing the due attendance of the Students for Divine Worship at such Church or Chapel as shall be approved by their Parents or Guardians respectively.

15.
CLAUSE (A.)
Where Students shall dwell.

AND for the better government of the Students in the said Colleges; BE it Enacted, That no Student shall be allowed to continue in any of the said Colleges unless he shall dwell with his Parent or Guardian, or with some near relation or friend selected by his Parent or Guardian, and approved by the President of the College, or with a Tutor or Master of a boarding-house licensed by the President of the College as hereinafter provided, or in a hall, founded and endowed for the reception of Students, and recognized by the College as hereinafter provided.

16.
CLAUSE (B.) License of Tutors and Masters of
houses.

And be it Enacted, That every person who is desirous of being licensed as a Tutor or Master of a boarding-house in any of the said Colleges, shall apply in writing under his hand to the President of the College for his License; and it shall be lawful for the President, if he shall think fit, to require of any such applicant such testimonials of character and fitness for the office as shall be satisfactory to him; and the application shall specify the house or houses belonging to or occupied by the Applicant, and intended by him for the reception of Students, and the number of Students who may be conveniently lodged and boarded therein; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the President,

President, in his discretion, to grant or withhold the License for the academical year then current or then next ensuing; and every such License shall be registered in the archives of the College, and shall enure until the end of the academical year in which it shall be registered, and shall then be of no force unless renewed in like manner, but shall be revocable at any time, and may be forthwith revoked by the President of the College, in case of any misbehaviour of such Tutor or Master of a boarding-house, or of the Students under his care, which in the opinion of the President, and a Majority of the Professors of the College, ought to be punished by immediate revocation of such License.

And be it Enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person whomsoever, having power to make an absolute disposition thereof, to give, grant, devise, bequeath or assure, by any deed, will or other instrument sufficient in law to create or convey an estate therein, any messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any estate therein, or any interest arising thereout, or any money, chattels and effects, to any trustee or trustees willing to accept the trust, or to the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests in Ireland and their successors, in trust, for founding and endowing halls for the reception of students in any of the said Colleges, and by such deed, will or instrument, to establish rules or to specify the authority for establishing rules to be observed by the students admitted to the benefits of such foundation, and to specify the authority by which the observance of such rules is to be enforced: Provided always, That no such hall shall be recognized by any of the said Colleges, unless the instrument of foundation shall provide that such rules, and also the appointment from time to time of the Principal or other person holding chief authority in such hall, shall be of no force until allowed by the person or persons appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, to execute the office of Visitor of the said College.

CLAUSE (C.) Endowment of Halls for Students.

AND for the encouragement of persons willing to found and endow Halls for the reception of Students in the said Colleges as aforesaid; BE it Declared and Enacted, That if Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall be pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to incorporate any number of persons willing to found and endow any such hall or halls as aforesaid, such incorporated hall shall be deemed a public work within the meaning of an Act passed in the second year of the reign of his late Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the Extension and Promotion of Public Works in Ireland," and of all Acts passed or to be passed for the amendment thereof; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works
